

As Si would say “HEY JACK!” It’s time for camp!

Duck Dynasty is the theme and family is what it is about. We are all part of an earthly family, and when we except Christ as our savior we are part of a bigger family—the family of God. What does it take to be part of a family? That is what we are talking about through the week of camp. Also, there are many fun & exciting activities planned for you in mind. The faculty are in prayer for each one of you and are preparing to make your week memorable.

Some important information to know:

Missions: Our mission for the week is Dale Meade from Columbia Christian Mission. You will be hearing what the mission is all about and how Christ is impacting lives through this mission. We are asking for an offering of $25 per camper. This money will go directly to the mission to help with their expenses and projects. Begin to pray with your family for this mission and how you can financially bless them. For more information about the mission go to <http://ccmonline.com/> or to Dale Meade’s Facebook page.

Theme Days: Themes add to the fun of camp. Each day we are asking the campers and faculty to come up with and bring their own creative costumes or dress to highlight each days theme.

- Monday: Mud Bug Boat Race beginnings (this is ongoing through the week & the Camp Dean will provide what you need)
- Tuesday: Camouflage Day (Any camouflage. The more the better)
- Wednesday: Beards, beards and more beards (become a Robertson look alike by wearing a long beard)
- Thursday: Bandana Day (Wear your best bandana, just like Willie Roberson)
- Friday: Mud Bug Boat Race Competition

Bring Your Bible: Don’t forget to bring your Bible to camp. A New International Version (NIV) would be best. If you have a different version, that is ok.

Note Taking Material: There will be times that you may want to write down something you learned from one of the lessons or to just write a letter to the Dean about how awesome he is 😊. Pens or pencils and a small notebook.

Drawstring Bag: It might be a good idea to bring a drawstring bag to carry your stuff while at camp.

Dress Code: Modesty is the best policy. Please, no cut off shirts. If you have to ask if it is appropriate, then the answer is probably: NO!

Gadgets & Electronics: The will be a great week of camp and we would not want anything to distract from it. Leave your MP3, Ipods, Cellphones etc. at home for the week. You may need a flashlight .
